Appointment

The Yale-NUS Career Development Postdoctoral Fellowship – Division of Humanities

Position Description:

The goal of the Yale-NUS Career Development Postdoctoral Fellowship is to offer academic opportunities for young Singaporean scholars and provide them with a potential avenue for a career at Yale-NUS College. Normally, the College will appoint Career Development Postdoctoral Fellows for up to 3-year terms, with an initial 1-year term and a possible 2-year extension. Individuals who successfully complete a three-year fellowship with distinction may be considered for tenure or educator track positions at the conclusion of their second term, provided the College has tenure-track or educator-track vacancies in the Division of Humanities.

Appointment & Salary:

Normally, individuals are appointed initially for a 1-year period with the possibility of a 2-year extension, and serve for a maximum of 3 years. Career Development Postdoctoral Fellows should be prepared to start the position in time for the 2018-2019 academic year (1st July 2018). Annual salary is $72,000 (Singaporean dollars) with standard benefits. A modest research stipend for attending conferences or professional meetings, membership dues and subscriptions will also be provided.

Career Development Postdoctoral appointees will be paired with a Yale-NUS faculty mentor, are expected to conduct high quality research within their particular field of expertise, and will teach one course per semester, with approximately half of the teaching within the Common Curriculum (https://www.yale-nus.edu.sg/curriculum/common-curriculum/).

Eligibility & Qualifications:

- Singaporean Citizen
- PhD completed no more than 2 years prior to the date of application
- Academic potential, ability to bring diverse ideas to Yale-NUS, and a willingness to interact with a broad range of colleagues and students will be major selection criteria.
- For applications to the Division of Humanities, including the fields of Arts and Humanities, History, Literature, and Philosophy, successful candidates might teach in either of two Common Curriculum course sets: Literature and Humanities I & II or Philosophy and Political Thought I & II. Candidates should check the syllabi of these courses to establish their suitability to teach within one set.

Application Procedure

The application deadline is 30th November 2017. For full consideration, submit the following materials via https://academicjobsonline.org/ajo/YaleNUS:

- Cover letter
- CV
- Statement on research interests and intended area of research
- Short description of teaching experience to date and any teaching evaluations, if available
• A curriculum contribution statement that briefly discusses the applicability of the candidate’s teaching and scholarship to the Yale-NUS Common Curriculum
• Three (3) letters of reference to be submitted by the reference writers via the application portal

For questions concerning administrative aspects of the application, please contact: Divisional Manager, Humanities, Ms Mastura Saleh, at Enquiry.humanitiesdiv@yale-nus.edu.sg.
