

Appointment*Director of Arts Programs*Position*Description:

Yale-NUS College in Singapore, a collaboration between the National University of Singapore (NUS) and Yale University, seeks to hire a Visual Artist, specialty and rank open. The faculty member will supervise curricular and extra-curricular activities in the visual arts, teach courses in his or her field of expertise, and co-ordinate offerings by visiting artists. Candidates should hold the requisite terminal degree. Depending on the expertise, experience and level of administrative experience, the position will be placed either on the tenure track, or the practice track. Administrative experience in coordinating arts activities is a desirable qualification.

The College would like to appoint an outstanding teacher, who is committed to innovative pedagogy and curriculum development and to closely mentoring students, as well as an active artist, whose work will benefit from and contribute to a vibrant intellectual community fostered by an interdisciplinary common curriculum in the liberal arts. Increasingly, Singapore is the site of an emerging international arts scene, and in the arts, as in many other endeavors, it is a gateway to the rest of Asia. At the College there is a great interest in the arts among students, and the position brings with it the opportunity to provide leadership in managing the arts within and outside the academic curriculum.

Salary, benefits, and leave policies will be competitive at an international level. Yale-NUS College is committed to supporting faculty research through generous startup grants, annual research and travel budgets, and sabbatical leave.
