

AppointmentThe Yale-NUS Career Development Postdoctoral Fellowship*Position
Description:

The goal of the Yale-NUS Career Development Postdoctoral Fellowship is to offer academic opportunities for young Singaporean scholars and provide them with a potential avenue for a career at Yale-NUS College. Normally, the College will appoint Career Development Postdoctoral Fellows for up to 3-year terms, with an initial 1-year term and a possible 2-year extension. Individuals who successfully complete a three-year fellowship with distinction may be considered for tenure or educator track contracts at the conclusion of their second term.

Eligibility & Qualifications:

- Singaporean citizens
- PhD completed no more than 2 years prior to the date of application
- Expertise in any field taught by Yale-NUS College
- Academic potential, ability to bring ideas to Yale-NUS, and a willingness to interact with a broad range of colleagues and students will be major selection criteria.

Appointment & Salary:

Normally, individuals are appointed initially for a 1-year period with the possibility of a 2-year extension, and serve for a maximum of 3 years. Career Development Postdoctoral Fellows should be prepared to start the position between 1 July and 1 August 2017. Salary is $72,000 (Singaporean dollars) per year with standard benefits. A modest research stipend for attending conferences or professional meetings, membership dues and subscriptions will also be provided.

Postdoctoral appointees will be paired with a Yale-NUS faculty mentor, are expected to conduct active research within their particular field of expertise, and will teach one course per semester, with approximately half of the teaching within the Common Curriculum (<https://www.yale-nus.edu.sg/curriculum/common-curriculum/>).
