The goal of the Yale-NUS Postdoctoral Fellowship is to attract talented young scholars, and provide a potential avenue for tenure track positions at Yale-NUS College. Normally, the College will appoint Postdoctoral Fellows for up to 3-year terms, with an initial 1-year term and a possible 2-year extension. Individuals who successfully complete a three-year fellowship with distinction may be considered for subsequent tenure or educator track positions following the term of their fellowships, provided the College has tenure-track or educator-track vacancies in the Division of Social Sciences.

Postdoctoral appointees will be paired with a Yale-NUS faculty mentor, are expected to conduct high quality research within their particular field of expertise, and will teach one course per semester, with approximately half of the teaching within the Common Curriculum (https://www.yale-nus.edu.sg/curriculum/common-curriculum/).

Eligibility & Qualifications:
- All nationalities
- PhD completed no more than 2 years prior to the date of application
- Academic potential, ability to bring diverse ideas to Yale-NUS, and a willingness to interact with a broad range of colleagues and students will be major selection criteria.
- Expertise in one or more of the seven majors/disciplines within the Division of Social Sciences: Anthropology, Economics, Environmental Studies, Global Affairs, Philosophy, Politics and Economics, Psychology, and Urban Studies.

The application deadline is 30th November 2017. For full consideration, submit the following materials via https://academicjobsonline.org/ajo/YaleNUS:
- Cover letter
- CV
- Statement on research interests and intended area of research
- Short description of teaching experience to date and any teaching evaluations, if available.
- A curriculum contribution statement that briefly discusses the applicability of the candidate’s teaching and scholarship to the Yale-NUS Common Curriculum.
- Three (3) letters of reference to be submitted by the reference writers via the application portal.
For questions concerning administrative aspects of the application, please contact Divisional Manager, Social Sciences, Ms Renee Lau, at: Enquiry_SocialSciencesDiv@yale-nus.edu.sg
