

Appointment	Tenured or Tenure-track (Open rank) Position in Urban Studies
Position Description	Yale-NUS College, a collaboration between the National University of Singapore and Yale University, invites applications for an open rank, tenured or tenure-track faculty position in Urban Studies. Applicants may have a specialisation in any relevant disciplinary area, although the analysis of urban processes should be central to their research and teaching. An interest in Asian urbanism and/or cities in a comparative perspective is desirable. Applicants must have a PhD and demonstrate an outstanding track record for their career stage. They should combine an active research agenda with a commitment to creative and effective undergraduate teaching. Familiarity or experience with the purpose of a liberal arts education would be desirable. Research achievements should include publications in leading peer-reviewed journals, commensurate with career stage. Senior applicants should be internationally recognised scholars. The successful applicant would join a committed team dedicated to the development and teaching of the Urban Studies major (https://urbanstudies.yale-nus.edu.sg/) and the Yale-NUS Common Curriculum (https://www.yale-nus.edu.sg/curriculum/common-curriculum/). They will also benefit from being a part of Singapore's globally recognised community of urban scholars. The successful applicant will be expected to begin in time for the start of the 2019-2020 academic year. Salary, benefits, and leave policies will be competitive at an international level. Yale-NUS College is committed to supporting faculty research through grants, travel allowances and study leaves.
Application Procedure	Applications should comprise the following: a cover letter explaining why the position at Yale-NUS is of interest; a full curriculum vitae, including all publications; statements on research interests, teaching experience and teaching philosophy, and; names and contact details of at least three referees. Tenure-track applicants must also include three academic references with their application. Applications should be submitted via Academic Jobs Online: https://academicjobsonline.org/ajo/YaleNUS. Review of applications begins 30 October 2018 and continues until the position is filled. For general inquiries, please refer to http://www.yale-nus.edu.sg, or email Enquiry_SocialSciencesDiv@yale-nus.edu.sg.
